

March 29, 1976

SENATOR GOODRICH: Senator Luedtke, in the Marvel amendment there, we are dealing with that page 18, section 45 of the bill. We are referring to expending in excess of $400 and then lower down it says $300. Would you have any objection, for example, to us making that a thousand dollars. This is the same point that Senator Syas brought up and I was thinking of the same thing, in fact, wrote out an amendment already to do that very thing. Why can't we, you know, a $400 campaign isn't worth even looking at, why don't we make that a thousand dollars in each one of those cases.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: I thought we had...I am with Senator Anderson, I thought we had it at a thousand dollars already.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Look in the Marvel amendment, though. It is actually zero now in the bill and Senator Marvel is raising it to $400 and $300, respectively, and I want to raise it to $1,000 in both cases.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: I don't think any of them are necessary, is what I am telling you. I think it is in there. It is in the bill. I am not talking about the Marvel amendment. I am telling you the Marvel amendment is....

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, what is Senator Marvel's amendment on the money?

CLERK: $400.

PRESIDENT: There you are.

CLERK: A motion to amend the Marvel amendment. Read amendment. See page 1484, Journal.

PRESIDENT: That is the original bill.

CLERK: Continued reading amendment.

PRESIDENT: Now, wait a minute, excuse me. Does this just simply restore the original bill? Senator Luedtke, wasn't the original bill a $1,000?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: That is what I thought.

PRESIDENT: Well, I don't think you can have an amendment... that is out of order.

SENATOR GOODRICH: They are talking about section 61. Senator Marvel is amending section 45 of the bill and that is what my amendment pertains to, section 45 of the bill.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Mr. President, may I just answer that, section 45, in the first place, deals with the detailed accounts of the committee treasurer, just the treasurer, not the ones that they make reports to the commission.